NASCE accreditation

Information to centres

After the application documents have been received by the UEMS/NASCE office, and been checked for completeness, you will receive an invoice for the application fee. The site visit for accreditation will take place within 3 months. You will receive a template with suggested time table for the site visit, and the items that will be discussed during the site visit.

The report from the site visit, will be discussed at the next meeting of the NASCE accreditation and review board (ARB), and the decision will be communicated to the centre by means of a report. Diplomas will be awarded at the NASCE scientific meeting with presentation of the centre.

European Centres

For 2019, the application fee is 3.000 €, for re-accreditation the fee is 1850 €. The annual NASCE membership fee is included for the year of accreditation or re-accreditation.

The applying centre will book and organise travel and accommodation for the site surveyor(s) after agreeing on the site visit date. These costs are to be paid by the centre.

Any outstanding travel expenses (taxi, parking, etc.), which have been paid by the surveyor(s), is to be reimbursed by the centre upon receiving receipts.

- The accommodation should be 4 star hotel or equivalent
- Flight economy class
